

Schneider Electric announces 2023 Global Alliance Partner Program Award Winners

- Awards honor Alliance partners that drive innovation in industrial automation and embrace EcoStruxure™ technology to deliver customer value
- Celebrates ecosystem collaboration in IoT and digitalization for sustainability, agility, resiliency, and profitability

Rueil-Malmaison (France), March 4, 2024 – Schneider Electric, the leader in the digital transformation of energy management and automation, today announced the winners of the 2023 Global Alliance Excellence Awards. Throughout 2023, Schneider Electric's Alliance Partners supported customers in the digitalization of industrial automation, delivering value with innovative initiatives, solutions and services.

These annual awards celebrate both Alliance System Integrators and Alliance Industrial Automation Distributors that have implemented Schneider Electric Internet-of-Things (IoT) technologies and demonstrated expertise in software, services and sustainability. The awards also highlight collaboration across the Alliance partner ecosystem, acknowledging new partnerships that bring more agility and resiliency to the customers they serve.

“Schneider Electric Alliance partners are driving today’s industrial digital transformation and collaboration is a vital component in achieving the efficiency and sustainability needed to thrive,” said Barbara Frei, Executive Vice President of Industrial Automation at Schneider Electric. “Our Excellence Awards shine a light on the best uses of integration, interoperability and innovation among our partner programs, demonstrating what’s next for different industries.”

In 2023, Schneider Electric enhanced its Alliance Partner Program to empower partners to better serve customers by helping to automate and innovate their industrial applications. As companies continue to digitalize their industrial operations, they rely on trusted and credible ecosystem partners. New specialization initiatives also ensure that partners stay competitive.

The awards were presented as part of Schneider Electric’s annual Global Alliance Partners conference in Marrakesh, Morocco. The conference brought together a cross section of international Alliance partners and Schneider Electric leaders to drive common growth ambitions and celebrate collective success.
